

The University of Texas at Austin
Butler School of Music

Dr. Stephen C. Page, Assistant Professor of Saxophone
E-mail: spage@austin.utexas.edu; www.stephen-page.com

Recommended Listening for the High School Saxophonist

The following list is meant as merely a starting point for young saxophonists, through which they may gain a broader understanding of the instrument, its repertoire, and its soloists over time.

Eugene Rousseau – Saxophone Vocalise
Eugene Rousseau – Saxophone Masterpieces
Eugene Rousseau – Saxophone Concertos
Stephen Page – Holy Roller
Stephen Page - Luonnotar
Kenneth Tse – Sonate
Kenneth Tse – Saxophone
Kenneth Tse – In Memory
Otis Murphy – Memories of Dinant
Otis Murphy – Fantasy
Arno Bornkamp – Saxophone Sonatas
Arno Bornkamp – Scaramouche
Timothy McAllister – In Transit
Timothy McAllister/Quorum – Cold Water Dry Stone
Timothy McAllister/SLSO - Adams
Jean-Yves Fourmeau – Soliste
Jean-Yves Fourmeau – Serenade
Jean-Yves Fourmeau – Tableaux de Provence
Claude Delangle – Historic Saxophone
Claude Delangle – French Saxophone
Claude Delangle – Under the Sign of the Sun
Claude Delangle – Jardin Secret (with separate play along CD)
Harvey Pittel – Moving Along
Harvey Pittel – Emerging and Celebrated Repertoire
Donald Sinta – American Music (with rehearsal CD)
Steven Mauk – Tenor Excursions
James Houlik – American Saxophone
James Houlik – Tenor Tapestry
Michael Ibrahim – Bach for Saxophone
Michael Ibrahim – French Music for Saxophone
Fred Hemke – The American Saxophonist
Fred Hemke – Simple Gifts
Nobuya Sugawa – Exhibition of Saxophone (3CD set, covering all major repertoire)
Nobuya Sugawa – Saxophone Concertos

Nobuya Sugawa – Yoshimatsu
Masato Kumoi – Simple Songs
Masataka Hirano – Sinfonia
Julien Petit – La Escapada
Kyle Horch – Anglosax
Francois Daneels – Saxophone en Concert
Daniel Deffayet – Deffayet/Carno
Daniel Deffayet – Saxophone Concertos
Marcel Mule – La Legende
Marcel Mule – Le Saxophone Francais
Jean-Marie Londeix – Portrait